

PRIVATE PAPERS READ INTO RECORDS OF THE SENATE "LOBBY" COMMITTEE

INVESTIGATORS GET POSSESSION OF LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS OF COLORADO BEET SUGAR MAN

Correspondence Belonging to Clarence C. Hamlin, in Charge of the Washington Office of American Beet Sugar Ass'n Two Years Ago, Is Read Before Investigating Committee—Most Sensational Evidence Yet Developed.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The trail of the "lobby" the senate has been following more than two weeks led today into the private files of the men in charge of the Washington offices of the United States beet sugar industry, the leading instrument of the campaign against free sugar through the columns of individual papers and press association.

It was a trail so long, so complicated and so winding, that after more than two hours of patient effort, the committee had succeeded in reading into its record only a small part of the mass of correspondence which senators believed had proved the most sensational evidence yet developed.

By subpoena deces tecum the committee got possession of copies of letters and telegrams of Clarence C. Hamlin, a Colorado Springs, Colo., newspaper owner and beet sugar man, in charge of the Washington offices of the American Beet Sugar association two years ago. The papers included what purported to be carbon copies of letters, unsigned, but furnished as genuine by Harry S. Austin, a clerk in the offices of Truman G. Palmer, representative of the United States beet sugar industry.

The "industry" succeeded the "association" about two years ago and Palmer succeeded Hamlin in charge.

More Than Seventy Read. While the committee was after the private papers, Palmer, after conference with Senator Clark of Wyoming, Hamlin's uncle was wiring Hamlin, urging him to get a lawyer to represent his interests. The committee had knowledge of that and hurried the letters into the record without regard to consequences. More than seventy had been read when adjournment was taken tonight.

Those read into the record were directed to managers of beet sugar companies, officers of the American Beet Sugar association and friends of Hamlin, indicating that Hamlin at the time of their writing was an active figure in a campaign to organize support for the protection of the beet sugar industry and secure publicity against tariff reduction.

Many Attempts at Publicity. Some told of Hamlin traveling to large cities, giving out interviews; others written in Washington indicating that he was trying to circulate matter in defense of a sugar duty through newspapers, The Associated Press and other channels, to offset what he thought misleading statements put out by sugar refiners. The text indicated that his attempts at publicity had not always been successful, as he had hoped. Other letters referred to a plan launched by Hamlin to have the large beet sugar company take over $35,000 in bonds of the Chicago Inter Ocean.

Other letters disclosed attempts to interest big railroad systems in the anti-free sugar campaign and to have professors of agricultural colleges appear before committees of congress with arguments favorable to the beet sugar men.

None of the letters disclosed that the railroads had been interested or that the great news agencies had been extensively used, or that the Inter Ocean bonds had been bought. Letters introduced did show that the sugar men had been dissatisfied with their efforts to get "interviews" carried by The Associated Press.

Examination of Witnesses Suspended. Austin and a sergeant-at-arms of the senate brought a box of telegrams and letters to the committee room this afternoon. The committee suspended the examination of witnesses and Chairman Overman, Senators Reed and Walsh began reading them into the record.

Two telegrams were exchanged between Hamlin, Senator Clark and Truman G. Palmer. The first of these given out by Palmer after the committee adjourned tonight read:

"Senate sergeant-at-arms has required Austin to produce box said to contain your private and business papers. Have talked with your uncle and we suggest you should wire retaining attorney to protect your rights under fourth amendment to the constitution until you arrive."

Hamlin's telegram in reply sent to his uncle, Senator Clark, was given to the committee. It said:

"Have wire from Palmer suggesting retain attorney to prevent delivery of my papers to committee. Austin, on whom service is made, may have some of my private correspondence or papers but so far as I remember there is nothing among them which I would object to being made public."

Hamlin added that he would hire Washington attorneys if Senator Clark thought it advisable.

"News Plate" Contracts. The correspondence covers much of 1911 and the early part of 1912 when the Underwood free sugar bill was introduced in the house. The letters produced indicated that Hamlin had made contracts with "news plate" concerns that furnished mat-

STORMY SESSION OF STRIKE COMMITTEE

Fist Fight Between Senator Martine and Quinn Morton Barely Averted

OPERATORS TESTIFY

Coal Operators of Paint and Cabin Creeks Present Their Side of the Case

SAY TRAIN WAS FIRED UPON

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 17.—At a stormy session of the senate mine strike committee at which a near fist fight between Senator Martine of New Jersey and Quinn Morton, manager of the Paint Creek, operator's association, was narrowly averted, the coal operators of Paint and Cabin Creeks to day presented their side of the controversy.

Mr. Morton, as the principal witness for the operators, presented their account of negotiations from which preceded the strike and detailed his activities during the troubles. His discussion of his participation in the attack on the strikers' camp at Holly Grove from an armored train precipitated the clash with Senator Martine who was questioning him, at the close of the morning session.

This afternoon, following an earnest conference between Senators Swanson, Kenyon and Martine, Senator Kenyon took charge of the hearing and Senator Martine did not ask a single question, although he had been a persistent examiner during Mr. Morton's appearance this morning.

All through the morning session feeling ran high, counsel for the operators at three different times protesting vigorously in rather strenuous language against the methods of examination employed by Senator Martine. After the disorderly outbreak in the committee room excitement was intense among the spectators, counsel and the crowds that thronged the lobby of the hotel where the committee is sitting. The committee's arrangements to place the entire hearing in charge of Senator Kenyon, however, quieted things down and the afternoon session went off quietly.

Will Leave for Washington. The committee made plans tonight to conclude the examination of witnesses tomorrow afternoon and in the evening the committee will start for Washington where the hearings will be re-opened.

Conditions were quiet among the miners on Paint and Cabin Creeks to day according to the advices which drifted in from the hills, although the officials of the United Mine Workers declared that they expected further trouble there soon. The Union board for District No. 29, which is the New River field, will meet tomorrow to take up the question of strike there, which, if declared it is expected, will involve nearly 15,000 men.

Quinn Morton, one of the operators, defended the position taken by the employers throughout the present labor dispute, declaring that they were utterly unable to accede to the terms offered by the miners, although the latter were willing to withdraw all demands except that for recognition of the union. He went into details as to the negotiations between miners and operators which preceded the strike in April, 1912.

Discusses Fight at Holly Grove. Mr. Morton and others discussed at length the fight at the miner's camp at Holly Grove, on the night of February 7th, when witnesses for the miners testified a machine gun raked the town from an armored train. Mr. Morton flatly denied the statement of Lee Calvin an ex-mine guard, called by the miners that he had urged that the train be backed up and that the men on board "give them another round." This statement and Calvin's declaration that Morton had remarked "didn't we give them hell" after the train passed the town, were the disputed points which Mr. Morton vigorously denied and precipitated the clash between the witness and Senator Martine. The senator had been questioning along this line and had aroused the resentment of Mr. Morton when Chairman Swanson announced the noon adjournment. Mr. Morton remarked:

"We'll all go down and take a few drinks and then we'll feel better."

Sensor Martine hollered over and Sergeant-at-arms Higgin, Senators Kenyon and Swanson had quite a time separating the two men and quieting the room.

Engineer and Fireman Testify. This afternoon the operators placed on the stand K. S. Leitch, the engineer and William Tardy, the fireman who were in charge of the armored train the night of the Holly Grove fight. Both testified that they were certain that the first shots fired in the trouble were fired from the hills along the tracks at Holly Grove and that no firing was done from the train until after it had been fired upon.

The engineer said that he dropped to his knees beside the boiler of his engine and rode there until the firing ceased. He received a flesh wound on his hand from a bullet. When the train reached Mucklow he said he went over the engine and tender and found the marks of seven bullets

FOOD AND DRUG ACT INCLUDES MEAT FOODS

NEW RULING WILL BE ENFORCED REGARDING PURE FOOD LAW

Manufacturers of Meat Foods Will be Required to Comply With Food and Drugs Act as Well as With the Meat Inspection.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Probably the most radical and far reaching extension of the food and drugs act since its enactment was made today when Secretaries Houston, McAdoo and Redfield, charged with enforcing this statute, ruled that meat and meat products in interstate or foreign commerce which hitherto have been exempted from the provisions of the pure food law may be seized if misbranded or adulterated. Beginning at once manufacturers of meat foods will be required to comply strictly with food and drugs act as well as with the meat inspection law. The action was taken on the strength of an opinion by Attorney General McReynolds. The three secretaries revoked a regulation adopted in October, 1906, only four months after the passage of the pure food law which had prevented the department of agriculture, according to a statement today by Secretary Houston, "from prosecuting against manufacturers of meat foods under the pure food law, or ordering seizures or prosecution for misbranding or adulteration of domestic meats."

Secretary Houston said he could not understand why meat and meat products were not food in the sense of the food and drugs act or why his department could not seize bad, adulterated or misbranded meat, once it had entered interstate commerce.

Therefore he had sought the advice of the attorney general.

Had no Power to Seize Meat. "Under the meat inspection law," the secretary said, "meat inspectors have absolutely no power to seize meat or meat food products that have become bad or have been adulterated after they have left a federally inspected establishment under the meat act."

"With the regulation of 1906 revoked, the department can seize and prevent the sale of bad and adulterated meat, once it has entered the state line and remains in interstate commerce. In case spoiled meat again reaches a federally inspected establishment it comes, of course, under the jurisdiction of the meat inspection law and can be destroyed as heretofore has been done."

Under the new decision the government can control meat foods from the hoof to the retailer, subject only to the limitations of the power of the federal government in interstate commerce. The department is empowered to control all meat products and can enforce its penalties, prosecutions and seizure for misbranding and adulteration.

Secretary Houston has appointed a committee to provide a plan for co-operation between the bureau of chemistry and animal industry in exercising full control over meat and meat products.

Chicago Leads All Cities IN NUMBER OF PARCELS HANDLED

Revenue From Parcels Post System—During First Three Months of Operation Was $7,076,517.

Washington, June 17.—Revenue receipts for the sale of parcel post stamps during the first three months of the operation of the system totaled $7,076,517, according to figures computed at the postoffice department. During that period approximately 150,000,000 parcel post packages were handled by the postal service. Chicago led all cities both in the number of parcels handled and in the amount of stamps sold, the latter being $1,254,465. New York city's sales for the same period aggregated $818,139.

BART LEWIS OF AUBURN WINS AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Breaks 195 Out of 200 Targets—Charles Young Wins Professional Championship by Breaking 197.

Dayton, O., June 17.—With a score of 195 out of 200 targets, Bart Lewis of Auburn, Ill., won the National amateur trap shooters championship event, the first contest in the grand American Handicap which opened here to day. With the championship went a diamond trophy valued at $100 and a purse of $68.40.

The national professional championship was won by Charles Young, a farmer residing near Springfield, Ohio, who broke 197 out of 200 targets. The winner of three event received a medal and a purse of $271.20.

and a load of buckshot. All of his testimony was corroborated by his fireman who said he took refuge in the coal on the tender when the bullet began to fly.

The operators called a number of men working in the mines who testified as to the general conditions all of them declaring that workers in the mines were well paid, denied that men had been brought to the mines in locked cars and denied that the trouble was caused by activity of mine guards.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL HELD UP AT GLENARM

Masked Robbers Stop Diamond Special South of Springfield

LONG FIGHT WITH POLICE

Bandits Detace Engine and Express Car from Train and Leave Posse

MAY HAVE SECURED $25,000

BULLETIN. Springfield, Ill., June 18.—Posse has two men surrounded in a barn on the outskirts of Springfield, three blocks from where the bandits left the passenger engine.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 18.—The mid-night Diamond Special on the Illinois Central railroad, due through here at midnight, was held up by two masked robbers near Glenarm, ten miles south of here. Deputy sheriffs, city police and newspaper reporters, summoned by telephone from Springfield, came up on the bandits while they were dynamiting the express car and with the passengers on the train were lined up beside it and their riot guns taken from them. Sheriff Henry Mester of Sangamon county and Policeman Adams fought a duel with one of the robbers. When the fusillade became too heavy for the bandits, they boarded the engine, commanding Engineer Adam Shell of Clinton to follow them. They left the fireman beside the express car with the messengers and curious passengers who had left the train a mile away and followed down the track to where the robbers stopped the express car after cutting it loose from the remainder of the train. When the robbers jumped aboard the engine to escape the shots of Sheriff Mester and the posse, they ordered Engineer Shell to pull out fast.

Another Attempt to Blow Safe. Probably three miles further on the hold-up men stopped the engine again and made further efforts to blow the safe in the express car. They were yet working when another automobile from Springfield bearing Chief of Police Underwood, Deputy Sheriff R. M. Sullivan and others came upon them. Again the robbers jumped upon the engine and gave another order to pull out. This time they did not stop until nearing the city limits of Springfield. There they jumped off the engine, ordering the engineer to go on, and disappeared.

Similar to C. & A. Holdup. Similar to the night less than a year ago when the Chicago & Alton mid-night train was held up less than five miles from the spot where tonight's holdup occurred, a brilliant moon shined, making the night almost light as day. The express messenger says there was probably $25,000 in the safe. "In his opinion the robbers had not reach it to the time the posse first arrived upon the scene. Engineer Shell upon reaching Springfield reported that the robbers succeeded in dynamiting the safe and believes they secured the money."

Officer Held Up. George E. Marney and City Policeman Maurice O'Leary were the two persons held up by the bandits. One of the robbers stepped out of the dark as Marney and O'Leary crept through some underbrush approaching the express car and engine, and with the drop on O'Leary told him to "Throw up your hands."

As O'Leary complied the robber picked up the officers riot gun and lined the policeman up beside the express car. Marney, who is a reporter for the Illinois State Journal, was unarmed and also obeyed the injunction of the desperado to sit down beside the car.

"You'll not have any trouble with me about that," answered Marney, as he obeyed the command.

The lower house of the general assembly adjourned at midnight and the members had just reached the Leland Hotel when reports of the holdup reach there. Several squads of representatives secured automobiles and went to the scene of the holdup. They joined Sheriff Mester's posse and are aiding in the search for the bandits.

Marney describes the holdup men as wearing linen dusters, white caps and black masks. He says both were extremely large men and that they were extremely cool under fire.

Sheriff Mester was hindered in his duel with the robbers by the fact that they were between him and the persons lined up beside the baggage car.

Work Accomplished Quickly. The Diamond Special was north-bound from St. Louis. The robbers flagged the train with a red lantern just after the train left Glenarm. They had cut the train in two and forced the engineer to carry the express cars north before the passengers or the rest of the train crew were aware of what had happened.

The engine was run north a mile and a half to a point half way between Glenarm and Tolono. Conductor McWilliams was crossing the fields to the Stout farm when the sky was lighted by the first explosion. The explosion was believed

FALLS EIGHT VOTES SHORT OF CONSTITUTIONAL VOTE NECESSARY

Before Vote Was Announced Motion to Postpone Further Action Was Carried—Bill May Be Given Another Tryout Today—Senate Passes Public Utility Ownership Law.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—The salary increase for members of the general assembly failed in the house today, when on a roll call it fell eight votes short of the constitutional vote necessary to its passage. While 69 members cast their votes in favor of raising the salary from $2,000 to $4,000 for the two year term, 72 others cast their votes against it.

Before the vote was announced on the salary increase Speaker McKinley recognized a motion to postpone further action and it was carried. This action leaves the bill in a position to be given another tryout tomorrow. That is the latest it can pass the house and be successful in the senate.

The senate passed the omnibus bill appropriating over $12,000,000 for expenses of the state government. A large number of appropriation bills passed. Those included appropriations for armories at Chicago, Ottawa, Kewanee, Galesburg, Moline, Kankakee, Morrison, Quincy, Woodstock and Aurora.

The house passed a bill which prevents fraternal insurance societies using proxies in voting.

The house tonight passed senate bill 528. Governor Dunne's municipal public ownership law, granting cities right to own and operate public utilities.

Awaits Governor's Signature. Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, of the house, late this afternoon signed the woman suffrage bill and the measure was sent to Governor Dunne for his signature.

PEORIA WILL BE CONTINUED AS TEMPORARY HEADQUARTERS

Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen Decide Not to Establish Permanent Headquarters at Present.

Washington, June 17.—Peoria, Ill., will be continued as the temporary headquarters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. This decision at today's session of the annual convention of the Brotherhood ended a lively contest over the selection of some city for permanent headquarters. Washington, Cleveland, St. Louis and Peoria had been urged, but the convention decided by overwhelming vote not to establish permanent headquarters at this session.

The principal objection to Washington was that it was too far east. Many of the delegates favored a middle western city.

CONFIDENT SENATE WILL APPROVE PENDING PROTOCOLS

Official confidence of Action in Spite of Opposition Which Has So Far Prevented Ratification.

Washington, June 17.—Administration officials apparently are confident that the senate ultimately will approve the pending protocols, providing for extension for five years of special arbitration treaties with various nations, in spite of opposition which has prevented ratification up to this time. The opposition has been based largely upon the contention that renewal of the treaty with Great Britain might compel the United States to submit the Panama Canal tolls question to arbitration and state department officers are said to have urged that members of the senate eventually would be obliged to see that renewal of the treaty could have no bearing on this subject.

D., Mrs. Eastwood's paper on "Laws that club the press" was one of the features of the afternoon program today at the twenty-eighth annual convention of the National Press Association of America.

TO RESTRAIN WABASH FROM SHIPPING LIQUORS

Kirkville, Mo., June 17.—The Adair county court to day issued a temporary injunction restraining the Wabash railroad from shipping intoxicating liquors into Adair county, a "dry" county. The prosecuting attorney contends the railroads know shipments of liquor are for illegal sale.

to have been sufficient to wreck the safe and car.

The robbery is believed to be the work of the same gang which robbed the Alton Kansas City train about six months ago at Iles Junction four miles south of Springfield. In the former instance the train was cut in two, the express cars were taken down the track and the safe was dynamited four times in the same amateurish manner employed by the bandits who are operating this morning.

JAMES TAKES STAND AGAINST MEAT DUTY

Kentucky Senator Vigorously Opposed to Countervailing Duty On Meat

FAVORS DUTY ON WHEAT

Senator James Does Not Oppose Free Listing of Wheat and Flour With Duty

FINISH SUNDRIES SCHEDULE

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Senator Ollie James of Kentucky who made the sugar tariff speech in the senate defending the stand of President Wilson has taken a vigorous position in the finance committee against the imposition of a countervailing duty on meat and cattle and to day announced that he would carry the fight to the Democratic senatorial caucus if he failed to swing the committee into line.

When the majority members of the finance committee resumed consideration of the proposed countervailing duties on agricultural products, Senator James emphatically declared that the public was entitled to unrestricted free cattle and meat. He did not oppose the action of the Democrats in free listing wheat and flour with the countervailing duty added but he opposed such a duty on cattle and meat so strenuously that final action on the matter was deferred. Senator Simmons announced that the matter was settled for presentation to the caucus in so far as wheat and flour were concerned.

"I am for free cattle and meat and shall go to the limit to get it," said Senator James when his attitude before the committee became known. "Because some countries levy a tax on the imports of the American beef trust, why should we, in retaliation, starve the people of the United States? I favored free meat and free cattle in the campaign last fall and I intend to do all I can to put them in the tariff law."

Complete Sundries Bill. The majority members of the committee were in session until late tonight to hasten work on the tariff bill and practically completed the sundries schedule. Remaining for consideration are the income tax and administrative features of the bill, which the committee will try to conclude by Thursday night. It is probable that the caucus will be called to meet Friday, but problems in the administrative section of the bill may delay the caucus until Monday.

Chairman Simmons is planning to get the bill into the senate by a week from Monday is possible.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska whose amendment to the tariff bill levying a graduated tax on tobacco output was rejected by his colleagues on the finance committee, gave notice in the senate that he would carry that amendment to the caucus and make a determined fight for its incorporation in the bill. He also introduced an amendment providing for a graduated income tax upon all corporations having a capital stock of more than 100,000,000 dollars and controlling more than one fourth of the production of any commodity. This, he said, he also would urge in the caucus.

The action of the finance majority in putting a tax on bananas yesterday was explained by Chairman Simmons to day as a revenue proposition.

"We have placed a tariff of five cents a bunch on bananas," said the senator, "for the purpose of raising revenue and also for the reason that the banana trade is absolutely controlled by a trust. The idea was not to protect or encourage any banana industry in the country because there is none. We estimate that the annual revenue derived from bananas at five cents a bunch will aggregate $2,000,000 and the small duty of five cents a bunch cannot very well be shifted to the consumer."

MOTORCYCLIST HURT. Chicago, June 17.—George Pehlman, 35 years old of Springfield, Ill., was severely injured tonight when his motorcycle was struck by an automobile driven by S. A. Stambaugh of Oak Park. Pehlman suffered a broken left leg and bruises on the body.

In the former instance the train was cut in two, the express cars were taken down the track and the safe was dynamited four times in the same amateurish manner employed by the bandits who are operating this morning.

MR. NEWMAN'S MANDAMUS CASE HEARD BY JUDGE THOMPSON

Court Advises City Officials That Differences Are Minor—Booklet of Accounts Substantially Complies With Law.

In the circuit court Tuesday the mandamus proceedings brought by Commissioner Newman against Mayor Davis, Commissioners Brennan, Engel and Knollenberg came to a hearing. The proceedings were brought on the ground that the monthly publication of city accounts is not given in enough detail. L. O. Vaught appeared on behalf of Mr. Newman and City Attorney Thompson represented Mayor Davis and the other city officials. Judge Thompson after hearing the pleas of the attorneys made a formal entry on the docket but gave no special ruling. He seemed to be of the opinion that the commissioners were really not very far apart in their ideas and that it would be a good plan to get together.

In his application for the writ filed by his attorney, L. O. Vaught, it was maintained by Mr. Newman that the city's accounts are not published each month in detail as should be done under the commission form of government act. The account of expenditures is published each month but not in full detail as this has not been considered at all feasible and would be very expensive.

City Attorney Thompson in behalf of the city officials showed the court copies of the booklet issued each month by the council and compared it with like publications in other cities acting under the commission law. The statements published here were found to be more in detail than in other and larger cities. Commissioner Knollenberg under whose direction the monthly statement is compiled and published told the court that he would be glad to have suggestions and would be entirely willing to show the court each month the proof or copy for the publication. It was stated also that itemized accounts are all on file in the office of the city clerk and any figures in the monthly statement can easily be verified by any one interested.

It was the opinion of the court that in all substantial details the monthly publication has been done according to the commission form of government law.

Real enjoyment comes from the use of a good pure talcum powder, just now during these warm summer days. In recommending Graham's we do it not only because it comes in a very liberal can for 10 cents but also because it is of very fine quality. CAPT. PHILIP LEE PASSES
AWAY TUESDAY NIGHT

HAD SERVED JACKSONVILLE
TWICE AS ALDERMAN.

Deceased Was First Commander of Local Post G. A. R.—Followed Wagon Making Business Here For Years and Was Prominent in Grace Church Work.

Capt. Philip Lee, for sixty years a resident of Jacksonville, passed away at his home, 603 North Church street, after a lingering illness, Tuesday night at 9 o'clock. He had been in poor health for the past two years, but had been confined to his bed only for the past ten weeks. At the time of his death he had attained the advanced age of 81 years.

Philip Lee, a son of Rev. Thomas E. and Lydia (Body) Lee, was born in Dover, Del., October 14, 1831, and when he was only 4 years of age the family moved to Springfield. While in Springfield Capt. Lee learned the wagon manufacturing business and when 21 years of age came to this city, where he successfully followed his trade. He was actively engaged in work until twelve years ago, when he disposed of his business and retired. Mr. Lee was married to Minerva J. Henderson, who preceded him in death in 1891. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Ida May Lee, who has tenderly cared for her father since the death of her mother. Capt. Lee was one of eight children, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lydia Foster of Springfield.

Capt. Lee enlisted as a sergeant in Co. D, 101st Ill. Inf., and served for three years in the civil war. He was promoted to the position of captain of his company July 28, 1864, and took part in the battles of Look-out Mountain, Mission Ridge and other engagements with the 101st, was in the Knoxville march and with Sherman in his march to the sea.

In politics Capt. Lee was always a Republican and served the city as alderman at two different times, being elected the first time in 1874 and the second time in 1880. He took a most active part in the work of organizing Matt Starr post No. 378 in this city and was chosen first commander of that body. Capt. Lee was a member of Bluff lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., and was a past grand of his lodge. For several years he acted as installing officer for the lodge and it was said of him that he was one of the best installing officers in the state.

Since coming to Jacksonville Capt. Lee has been a member of Grace M. E. church and has always been actively identified in the work of the church. For nearly forty years he led in the singing at the church, both at the regular services, at Sunday school and at prayer meetings. He was possessed of a rich tenor voice and though quite advanced in years, his voice lost none of its charm or purity of tone.

Capt. Lee was possessed of a rugged disposition and was a man who did not complain, even though he suffered not a little during his long illness. He was a man who was admired by all who knew him, for his sterling worth and good Christian character. He was a soldier in truth as well as in name and was never wanting when duty called.

Funeral services will be held at the Grace M. E. church in charge of Rev. J. W. Miller and the Odd Fellows, probably Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Friends are requested to omit flowers. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

FACE ALL RED SPOTS AND BLISTERS

Rubbed and Scratched. Would Cry and Fret. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face Got Well.

632 N. 5th St., Terre Haute, Ind.—"My little nephew, a boy of four years, had a breaking out on his face. It was little red spots at first then he would rub and scratch and water blisters would form and wherever the water would run another would come until his face was covered with them. He would cry and fret. His mother got some medicine, but it did not do any good. He would scream and cry and say it hurt. We hardly knew him, his little face was all red spots and blisters. So I begged him to let me put some Cuticura Ointment on him. The next morning I made a strong soap suds with Cuticura Soap and washed his face in the warm suds. The little blisters burst by pressing the cloth on them. After I had his face washed, I put the Cuticura Ointment on and in a short time his little face was all red and dry. I kept using the Cuticura Soap and putting on the Cuticura Ointment and his face got well and it did not leave a scar. He was entirely cured in about one week and a half." (Signed) Mrs. Arthur Haworth, Jan. 10, 1912.

A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient when all else has failed. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

everybody does not carry out an interview.

Regarding Inter-Ocean Bonds.

The correspondence relating to the proposed purchase of Chicago Inter-Ocean bonds by beet sugar companies began with the copy of a letter dated March 20, 1912, addressed to Warren. The copy was not signed but was included in the "Hamlin correspondence." It stated that Mr. Hinman, who controlled the Chicago Inter-Ocean, desired assistance in placing $35,000 bonds of the paper, the total bonded indebtedness as stated in the letter being $600,000.

Mr. Hinman since that time is said to have disposed of his newspaper property and to have severed all connection with the Inter-Ocean.

One "personal and confidential" letter addressed to R. W. Kelley, president of the Holly Sugar company, Denver, and dated April 27, 1912, said in part:

"I think they (the bonds) are absolutely safe and am firmly of the opinion that the incidental benefits we would receive would be equal to the face of the bonds themselves."

A letter apparently from Hamlin to J. Ross Clark, Los Angeles, dated November 17, 1911, said that sixty sugar factories had organized a "concrete and militant organization."

Letters and telegrams bearing on the organized campaign early in 1912 to secure petitions and protests against free sugar from various states were numerous.

Reading of the correspondence will be resumed when the committee meets tomorrow.

WOMAN WOUNDED WHEN TRAMP FIRES BULLET THROUGH DOOR

Posse Soon Finds Would-be Assassin But Rather Than be Taken He Suicides.

Quincy, Ill., June 17.—Mrs. Hannah Erke this afternoon received a wound through the shoulder which penetrated the right lung when an unknown man fired a bullet through the door at her home near Fowler, eleven miles from Quincy. A posse was formed and the would-be assassin was found in a wheat field two and one-half miles northwest of Fowler. Rather than be taken by fifty enraged farmers, armed with shot guns, rifles and revolvers, the tramp either shot himself through the head or death resulted from a bullet from the revolver of Deputy Sheriff Frank McNay.

The tramp before death shot Deputy McNay through the left leg as the latter stood on a bank overlooking the hiding place of the dead man who was behind some trees and hidden from view by low branches and wheat.

Mrs. Erke, sixty years old, is in a serious condition, while the wound of Deputy McNay may not prove serious. The intruder is believed to have entered the Erke home for the purpose of assault.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 17.—Dr. John A. He put the association on record as favoring strong means to medical laws.

DUNDEE GETS DECISION OVER WHITE AT VERNON

Chicago Boy Has no Chance After Tenth and Seemed to Weaken Before the Italian's Dazzling Speed.

Los Angeles, Calif., June 17.—Johnny Dundee of New York was given the decision over Jack White of Chicago at the end of their 20 round bout at Vernan arena tonight. They fought at catch weights.

White's showing was a distinct surprise, although two to one money, with the New Yorker on the long end had gone begging. The Chicago feather-weight more than held his own in the first half of the fight and at ten rounds it would have been a good draw. After that, however, he weakened, although in flashes he punished Dundee with body punches. Dundee's dazzling speed, however, was too much for the Chicagoan. Jumping about his antagonist, darting in and out he dazed White with straight lefts to the face, alternating with an occasional slam to the jaw. The end of the fight found Dundee just as fast and strong as ever, while White was wilting fast. There was not a knockdown during the encounter.

White appeared to have much the harder punch but Dundee gave him few opportunities to set himself and in most of the slugging exchanges, Dundee had the advantage. Several of the early rounds were fairly even, but after the tenth White did not have a chance. There was considerable clinching but very little resting and Dundee had a big lead in the close range exchanges.

In the twentieth Dundee tore into White like a tornado and the Chicagoan was helpless against a volley of rights and lefts to the face. In the last minute White sent in a right and left to the jaw and a right to the stomach that worried the New Yorker, but it was only for a moment as the Italian was fighting at top speed when the final gong sounded.

CONCORD CHRISTIAN CHURCH JUBILEE.

The all day meeting at the Christian church was held Sunday, the 15th, according to previous arrangements. Sunday school was held at 9 o'clock. Elder Davis W. Martin, pastor of the church, was on hand to fill his regular appointment. At 11 o'clock the regular preaching service began. There was singing by the congregation and special music by members of the chorus. Rev. J. G. Reed was present by invitation and made the opening prayer. Elder Martin preached the sermon, which was listened to by a large and appreciative audience.

At noon the Ladies' Aid, of which Mrs. Ora T. Hamm is president, invited the hungry to the long tables, which were laden with a splendid dinner. Rev. J. G. Reed of the M. P. church returned thanks and the large family got busy with those things that had been brought in baskets from the homes. It was regretted by many that a number of those who attended the services could not remain for dinner. About 100 took dinner under the shade of the big trees and there were baskets of food left for supper.

In the afternoon, at near 3 o'clock, the song service began. After singing a hymn S. M. Henderson read the 90th Psalm and Elder L. L. Zerby offered prayer. A number of special songs were sung and Rev. W. R. Butcher of Joy Prairie was introduced and he made a good talk, suitable to the occasion. Some ministers from other towns had been expected, but were unable to be present.

S. M. Henderson made a financial statement to the effect that of the $1,675 pledged two years ago at dedication nearly every dollar had been paid.

Brother D. W. Martin then made the closing remarks and Deacon Wolff made the closing prayer. About 200 people registered, but many more were in attendance.

At 8 o'clock the closing session began and consisted of a goodly number of select songs well rendered. A splendid sermon by the young pastor, an eloquent prayer by Rev. J. G. Reed, besides the congregational singing, solos sung by Misses Grace Reed and Anna Roach made up the program. Rev. J. H. Housman of the M. E. church was expected at the evening service, but failed to get in.

The day was one long to be remembered by Concord people. For the time being the church people united in a splendid series of meetings, all to the glory of the God and His Dear Son. The committees, several in number, worked faithfully for the comfort of their visitors and the success of the meeting. Among the visitors we noted Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Martin and son, John, of Jacksonville; Mrs. A. W. Petefish and son, Jesse, of Littleberry; Mrs. Krems of Beardstown, and perhaps others whose names we did not get.

BARTHOLOMEW MAKES PLEA FOR PERSONAL LIBERTY.

Makes Speech Before Germans at Johnstown Against Prohibition Wave.

Johnstown, Pa., June 17.—Members of congress were sharply arraigned here today by Representative Bartholdt of Missouri in a speech at the German Day celebration for their alleged attitude toward prohibition and other sumptuary legislation. He took for his text "Personal Liberty," and called on all "liberal" citizens to join in a fight to offset the "puritan cause."

"Are you aware that the last congress, composed of a Democratic house and Republican senate," he demanded, "passed a prohibition measure by more than a two-thirds majority. And that the lawyers, who constitute 85 per cent of the membership, knew it was unconstitutional and voted for it anyhow? It is a fact."

"President Taft, true to his oath to defend the constitution, had the courage to veto that bill, but the same two-thirds majority, although they had taken exactly the same oath as the president, passed it over his veto."

"When things have come to such pass that responsible lawmakers will overthrow the constitution for a popular fad, do you not agree with me that your liberties, for which the constitution is our guarantee, are in the greatest possible danger?"

The Missouriian declared the struggle of the age in the United States was between the Puritan and his blue laws on one hand and the pleasure-loving Germanic people on the other. He denounced the collection of funds in churches and by religious organizations, which, he charged, were used to intimidate lawmakers in both the national and the state legislatures.

"Struggle Growing Fiercer."

"The struggle between these two wholly different theories of life is on, my friends," he said, "and it is becoming fiercer every day. The attempt to further end further restrict our liberties in a Puritan sense is carried on in the garb of a religious movement and the ministers of all churches and the members of all congregations are constantly called upon for support and for money to maintain lobbies in both the national as well as all state capitals, and these lobbyists are cracking the whip over our lawmakers and urging them to pass more and more restriction laws—laws which in their mistaken zeal they believe will make people good."

"I do not exaggerate, my friends, when I say that if this movement is not stopped, and stopped soon, the American people will find themselves wrapped up in a network of 'don'ts' which will completely hamper their freedom of action. And instead of being freemen in all matters of personal conduct they will be slaves, fettered by the chains of un-American laws."

Mr. Bartholdt demanded what was to be done to combat the prohibition movement. He partially answered his query by asserting that Germans throughout the United States would be a unit in opposing any encroachment on their personal liberty.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistency, which finally secured for him a good position.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The regular meeting of the Woman's country club of Orleans was held at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen in Alexander Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance of members. A book review of "Black Rock" by Ralph Connor, which was to have been given by Mrs. Rosa Strawn, was read by her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Kuntze, in a very interesting manner. As there were not many members present at the last meeting, a report of the recent meeting of the twentieth congressional district, Federation of Women's clubs at Mt. Sterling, was given by Mrs. Hinrichsen.

Following the program a very delightful social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served.

The ladies of the office, force of J. Capps and Sons, Ltd., enjoyed a suffragette supper at Nichols Park Tuesday evening. The affair was a feast of exultation over the recognition of women's rights and a relaxation from the strenuous cares of business. It was also in honor of the birthday of two members of the party, Misses Dorothy Henze and Veda Colby. All the ladies are suffragettes as well as capable business women and evinced their independence by making the event a "ladies affair" exclusively. The occasion was enlivened by several pleasant and non-militant games. Those representing J. Capps and Sons were Misses Dorothy Henze, Alice A. McAvoy, Veda Colby, Laura Hatfield and Sophia Ironmonger. The guests included Miss Edna Colby of Swift & Co., Miss Martha Lindemann and Miss Viola Ironmonger of Waddell and Co., and Miss Mabel Loneragan of Jenkinson, Bode and Co.

The marriage of Mrs. E. I. Whitlock and Miss Eloise Smith will be solemnized this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alice Nelms-Smith, 138 Park street.

The twenty-four young ladies belonging to the Inner Circle Bible class enjoyed a picnic supper at Nichols park Tuesday evening. Miss Meta Gruenewald is teacher of the class and its membership is taken from the various churches of the city.

ROUTT COLLEGE HOLDS EIGHTH COMMENCEMENT

FOUR ACADEMIC AND ONE COLLEGIATE DIPLOMAS CONFERRED TUESDAY EVENING.

Large Audience Hears Program of Addresses by Graduates and Music—Father Crowe Gives Class Parting Admonition—Alumni Banquet Tonight at the College.

Four were graduated from the academic and one from the collegiate department of Routt college at the eighth annual commencement held in the college auditorium Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Interesting addresses were made by each of the graduates and a final word of congratulation and exhortation was said to be the graduates by the Very Rev. J. W. Crowe. The graduates from the Routt academy were Edward James Alexander, Florence Harriett Loneragan, Mary Ellen Sloan, and Mary Delphine Sullivan. The graduate from the collegiate department was Mary Corilla Mahoney. The musical program consisted of songs by the girls glee club, a song by Miss Marguerite Butler and instrumental selections by Misses Margaret Ring and Clara Moore and Edward Alexander. Miss Florence Loneragan was the valedictorian of the class and Miss Mary Sullivan the salutatorian.

The graduates and members of the faculty marched to the platform to the music of the processional march played by Miss Margaret A. Ring. Those besides the graduates who sat on the platform were Very Rev. W. Crowe, Rev. F. F. Formaz, Very Rev. Joseph Crowe, Professors Thomas Quigley, L. T. Hickson, Hyacinth DeJean, Harvey Routt and Sisters Evangelista and Elizabeth. The girls glee club composed of Misses Lillian Loneragan, Kathleen Walsh, Theresa Walsh, Marguerite Butler, Jeanette McCarty, and Louise White sang as the opening number of the program the "Spring Song" by Mendelssohn and as the concluding number the "Shepherd Song" by Fox. The other musical selections were given from time to time throughout the program. Edward Alexander gave a piano solo Scherzino by Bohm. Miss Marguerite Butler sang "Tell Me Beautiful Maiden" by Gounod and "An Open Secret" by H. Woodman as an encore. She was accompanied by Miss Ring on the piano and the violin obligato was played by Miss Moore. Miss Moore was heard in two excellently rendered numbers on the violin, the "Ave Maria" by Schubert-Wilhelm and a rondo, "des Lutins", by Bazzini. Her musical selections were well received and heartily applauded as were the others.

The Student Address. Miss Mary Delphine Sullivan who gave the salutatory address took as her subject "Edmund Burke, the Ideal Statesman." Burke was a statesman of the highest rank because he met all requirements of a great statesman. He was great as a politician. When a political measure arose he first asked himself whether or not it was expedient. He would support no law not in accord with the need of the plain people. No measure gained his support which experience did not show to be necessary or which was incompatible with the principles of the British constitution. In conclusion, Miss Sullivan complimented the great English Commoner on his nobility of character as well as for the greatness of his achievement.

"History has proved that both the principal and stand taken were laid on the basis of sound reasoning and the clearest distinctions between right and wrong.

In "Moving Pictures" Miss Mary Sloan discussed the dangers and advantages arising from this wonder among modern inventions and prophesied even greater fields of usefulness for it in the future. Defects in the production of moving pictures were almost all corrected by 1904," she said. "The cinematograph, as we know it dates from 1907. Its advantages are many. No method of instruction by means of printed book can compare with the royal road perfected by the cinematograph. It is recognized as an invaluable method of instruction. The moving picture has its place and the moving picture has come among us to stay. Many of the dangers from the motion pictures, are moral ones arising from lack of proper censorship. The government must do for the motion picture film what it has for pure food. But these disadvantages are temporary and will be overcome. The time is coming when the motion picture will occupy an even greater place in our national life and will serve to convey to the people better conceptions in science and art."

Two Important National Problems. Two important problems to the United States were discussed by the next two speakers, Edward Alexander and Miss Florence Loneragan, the valedictorian. Mr. Alexander spoke on the Mississippi Waterway, and the movement for increased facilities for transportation. Miss Loneragan's subject is a much mooted one in educational circles, that of the elective system.

In discussing the "Mississippi Waterway" Mr. Alexander spoke of the pride with which the people of Illinois look on their commonwealth but pointed out that they often fail to realize to what extent to richness and greatness of the state depends on its situation in the mighty Mississippi river system.

"We have been slow to make use of this river system with its twelve thousand miles of tributaries to the Father of Waters and its valley inhabited by over 70 million people on account of the great attention paid few years ago to the development of the railroad," said the speaker.

"Those who built and promoted the railroads thought transportation by water slow and antiquated. They forgot its cheapness and superior economy. The greatest development can come to Illinois only when we properly enlarge our waterways, when we connect Chicago with the Gulf, rendering that great city accessible by steamers like those which sail the Great Lakes and perhaps by the magnificent liners which plow the ocean."

"The elective system, Miss Loneragan contended is not for the best interests of the student. It may easily lead to one sided development. The student under this system has a tendency to study what he likes leaving himself ignorant of many branches of the faculties of his mind at the expense of others. The love of ease will often influence the decisions of the child in school. The results were opposed to this system as in force to day. Many modern authorities disapprove of it as Prof. Munsterburg of Harvard and President Hall of Clark University.

In the conclusion of her address Miss Loneragan as the valedictorian expressed to her professors the respect and gratitude of the class and bequeathed to the class beneath the task of holding up the standards of the college which she and her classmates had learned to love so well.

"Moral Liberty" was the subject of Miss Mary Mahoney, the graduate from the collegiate department. The importance to man of liberty makes it imperative that he understand exactly what it is. Too often liberty is confused with libertinism. That man has the greatest degree of liberty who is the freest from the domination of his passions. The free man has sacrificed every vestige of libertinism and selfishness and has attained a liberty akin to the divine liberty.

Presentation of Diplomas. Following the addresses by the graduates, the diplomas were given to the class by Very Rev. Father Crowe and the bachelor's degree was conferred upon Miss Mary Mahoney. Before presenting the diplomas Father Crowe said in part:

"You are all proud of your college as every right thinking man or woman should be. You should be doubly proud of it on account of the sacrifices made by its founders and teachers. You can never understand the deep sacrifices made by those who gave liberal to found the institution and spent their lives in service within its walls. Without the deepest humility nothing good was ever accomplished.

"Before closing I must remind you that the greatest question before you is a question of education. The action of mind, body and soul. One of the most important elements of Christian education is education of the will. Memory and understanding may be trained, but unless the will be educated, the individual is in the greatest danger of destruction.

"I must urge you to be grateful to your teachers. Do not be guilty of the sin of ingratitude, so common that it makes one sick at heart to witness its effects every day. Be grateful to God and be thankful to the teachers who have guided you through your course and sacrificed for you. Be honest, be upright and never fail to be God fearing men and women."

A banquet of the alumni will be held at the college this evening at 8 o'clock.

ANNUAL OPENING MEETING. The annual open meeting of the Junior Etude club will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Music Hall at the Woman's college. The public will be cordially invited to attend. This is the third year of the organization which is composed of twenty-three young girls and all have been advancing musically in a gratifying manner. Through the courtesy of Dr. Harker permission was granted to give the program at the college.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

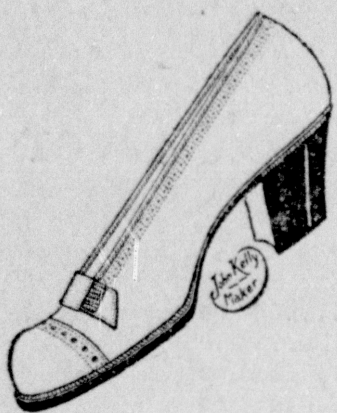

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should. The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and a place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that could be devised. This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only upon the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradfield's Regulator Co., 132 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort."

TUESDAY HOTTEST JUNE DAY ON RECORD IN THIS TERRITORY

Thermometer Registered 100 Degrees—Rainfall For Preceding Month Way Below Normal.

Tuesday was the hottest June day on record in this territory, the mercury rising to 100 degrees, according to G. H. Hall, weather observer at Alexander. Mr. Hall stated that since records of the temperatures have been kept there have been a number of June days when the mercury stood at 97, 98 and 99 degrees but this is the first instance where it had gone to the 100 mark.

The rainfall is quite a little below normal for the past six weeks. During May .66 inches fell and so far this month only .06 inches have fallen, making the total precipitation for the past six weeks .72 inches. Under normal condition about 6 inches would have fallen at this time. Jacksonville has had more rain than Alexander, but the difference would change the figures only slightly. Mr. Hall's records show that two years ago was quite dry, but the drought did not start until about the middle of June. In 1901 there was not much more rain in May and the first two weeks in June, than there has been in the past six weeks.

ABANDONED AUTO TAKEN TO BEARDS TOWN.

Machine Which Burned in Roadway

Prentice Still Unclaimed. Mention was made recently of the burned automobile which was attracting a great deal of attention in the neighborhood of Prentice. It seems that the car is now at Beards town awaiting the arrival of someone to prove ownership. The Beards town Enterprise has this to say of the incident:

"Beards town autoists who have travelled the Springfield road recently have been interested in the wreck of an automobile to be seen over near Prentice. Something more than a week ago an automobile caught fire along the road and the occupants when they saw there was no chance to save the machine deserted it, after having detached the numbers, so that the identity of the owner could not be learned. The car was one of three machine which formed a touring party and the strangers were given quarters in the companion cars and carted away, with no one in the county ever learning the identity."

"A plenty of bottles, all empty and bearing evidence of the quantity of liquid refreshments imbibed by the auto party, were found in the machine. Several ladies were said to have been members of the party."

"Bottles and partly eaten lunches indicated that the party was camping when the fire occurred."

"The car stood beside the road for several days and little by little persons carried away the parts until finally a Beards town man brought the car to his home here and will of course retain it until it is claimed by the owners."

The Ladies Are Interested in Mrs. Millen's Lecture

Mrs. Millen is lecturing on and demonstrating all this week at Taylor's Grocery the number of ways Burnett's extracts and fruit colors can be utilized in making pretty and tasty desserts and pudding. Mrs. Millen takes hard boiled eggs, shapes them in form of apples, pears and plums, and colors them the true fruit color. One can hardly believe that the fruit is artificial. They are nice to serve as a salad for luncheon or picnics. Mrs. Millen will lecture to the Domestic Science Round Table Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Taylor has arranged to have plenty of chairs. There will be room for all who care to attend this special day. Mrs. Millen will demonstrate her salads Thursday. She has a number of recipes of her own which she will be glad to give the ladies if they bring paper and pencil to copy them. Mr. Taylor has arranged with Mrs. Millen to lecture Wednesday and Friday evening to those that can not attend during the day. Be sure and attend some time this week as you will be well repaid for your trouble.
